

46. BUNYA BUNYA TREE Graceada Park (1916)

Landmark Preservation Commission Resolution: October 19, 1998
Designated by City Council: November 10, 1998

Description: The City's Bunya Bunya tree is located in Graceada Park. The tree, a native of New Zealand, was a gift to the community from the Native Sons of the Golden West in 1916.

Considered one of the largest trees in the community, the Bunya Bunya tree is 116 feet tall. It has a circumference of 12 feet when measured at four feet from ground level. The tree has an average crown spread of 50 feet.

In 1998, the tree was at least 82 years old.